Friday 18th September: Another fabulous week at Brackenbury. Thank you for to the PSA organising the bake sales and our first uniform sale. It has been such a fantastic start to the year and I know all of our new families appreciate the support navigating a new school. Congrtulations to our new School Council and Eco Council, please see below!

Please do make note of the Parent Information Workshops later on this half term and all the events this half term. Add them to your diaries! It was so lovely to see you all at our Meet the Staff Event, thank you for coming into our classrooms and seeing our fabulous learning!

School Council (2026/27)

Congratulations to our fantastic new School Council. You all presented brilliant manifestos and your class voted you into being their representatives.
We look forward to all your hard work this year with Ms Long leading you as your class school council representatives. All our school council will wear their badge with pride and are always willing to help and support others. We know they will be a great asset to Brackenbury.
