

BRITISH VALUES AT BRACKENBURY

The goal of education in all diverse communities must therefore be to instil a sense of belonging to the wider community, and to the country in which they live.

What does British Values mean to Brackenbury?

A belief in democracy

- School council
- Voting used in class activities
- Restorative approaches ethos
- Talk partners and group/collaborative learning
- PSHCE curriculum
(e.g. debate on topical issues Y4)

A belief in freedom and individual liberty

- Understanding of rights and responsibility in class and through assemblies
- Study of historical figures, e.g. Nelson Mandela, Martin Luther King
- PSHCE curriculum
(e.g. universal rights Y5)

A belief in accepting personal and social responsibility

- Restorative approaches ethos
- Prefects
- Young interpreters
- School council
- Class roles (e.g. monitors)
- Charitable fundraising
(e.g. Comic Relief, Children in Need)
- PSHCE curriculum
(e.g. friendships & break-ups Y1 & Y2)

A belief in respecting and upholding the rule of law

- School rules
- Class charters
- Anti-bullying week
- PSHCE curriculum
(e.g. drugs awareness Y6)

A belief in mutual respect

- Restorative approaches ethos
- Eid & Christmas fairs
- RE visit cycle to places of worship
- International Festival
- Diversity represented throughout the year across the curriculum
- PSHCE curriculum
(e.g. respect for the environment Y3)

A belief in tolerance of others (including different faiths)

- Recognition of festivals/faiths in class and through assemblies
- RE curriculum (whole school)
- RE visit cycle to places of worship
- International Festival
- European Day of Languages